Exhibit Plan

I. The Invasion Months

> It took the German army seventy-six days to occupy 97% of Belgium. Posted items shown in "The Invasion Months" were mailed during the Belgian postal administration from towns later captured and held by the Germans.

II. Towns never occupied
- Towns in southwestern Belgium
- Belgian enclaves in Holland and England

III. Government-in-Exile
- Le Havre
- Ste. Adresse

IV. Military

V. Post-War–November 11 to December 31, 1918

Oft-maligned parcel post service stamps and cancels help tell what happened to free Belgium.

Invasion!	Later occupied town	Later occupied town
Town Occupied: 10 October, 1914	22 August, 1914	7 September, 1914
4 Aug., 1914 Antwerpen/Anvers	10 Aug., 1914 Thimeon Parcel post cancel	11 Aug., 1914 Erembodegem

Philatelic arrows, ➡, mark items of interest such as unusual rate covers, cancellation details, or printing flaws. Bold text is information of special historical significance. Quotations and translations are italicized. Text with serifs is philatelic information.

Bibliography

Barden, Michael, Belgium During WW I–Byways rather than Highways!, Australian Journal of Philately, Issue #67, March '99

De Bast, J., Nomenclature des bureaux de Poste de Belgique et du Nord de la France occupés pendant la guerre 1914-1918 R Editions, Antwerp, Belgium

Lintrup, Morten, Internet site (http://www.uffesvej.dk/ccc28788/page3.html), and private correspondence

Smith, Prof. Barry,[Philosophy Dept], SUNY, Buffalo], Internet site: (http://wings/buffalo.edu/philosophy/faculty/smith/baarle/htm) ,and private correspondence

Whyte, Dr. Brendan, [Geography Dept., University of Melbourne (Australia)], private correspondence